

April 7th, 2020

ML Content Working Group

Discussing course structure, content, format, validation, etc.

Agenda

- Let's introduce ourselves
- Course structure
 - Targeting (surveys)
 - Content
 - Format
 - Design, License
- Review infrastructure options

Please help us with the meetings note here.

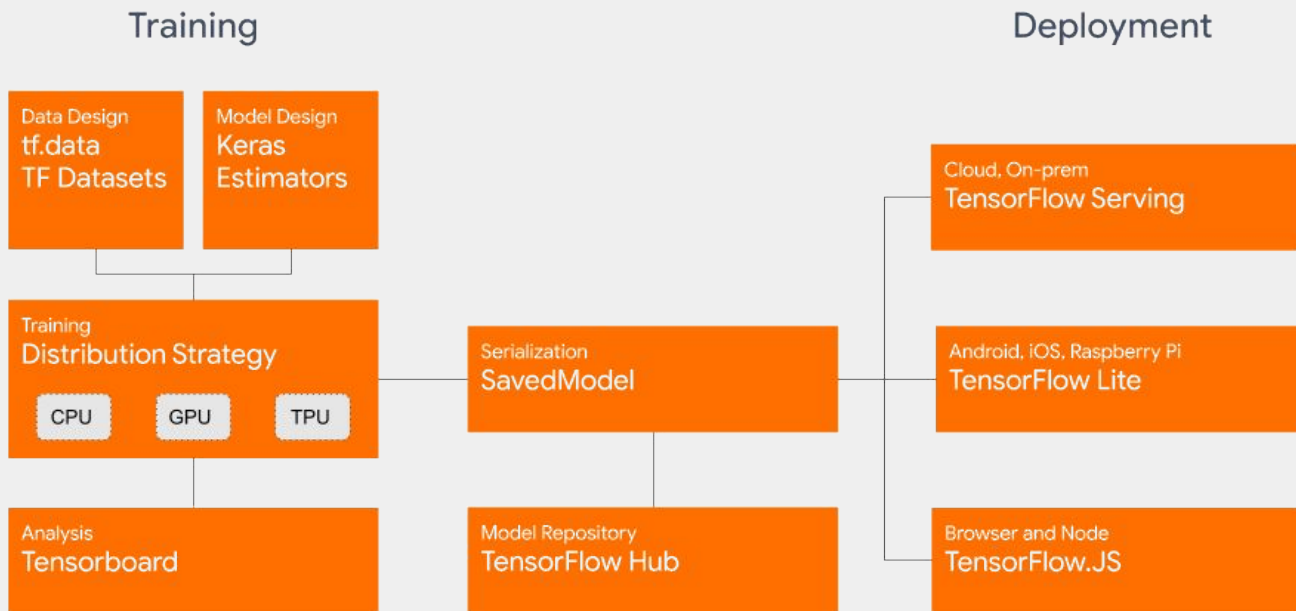

Target audience (Course structure)

- People who know how to code
- Basic understanding of Python
- Never studied ML before
- Managers, designers(?)
- Need to send out surveys?

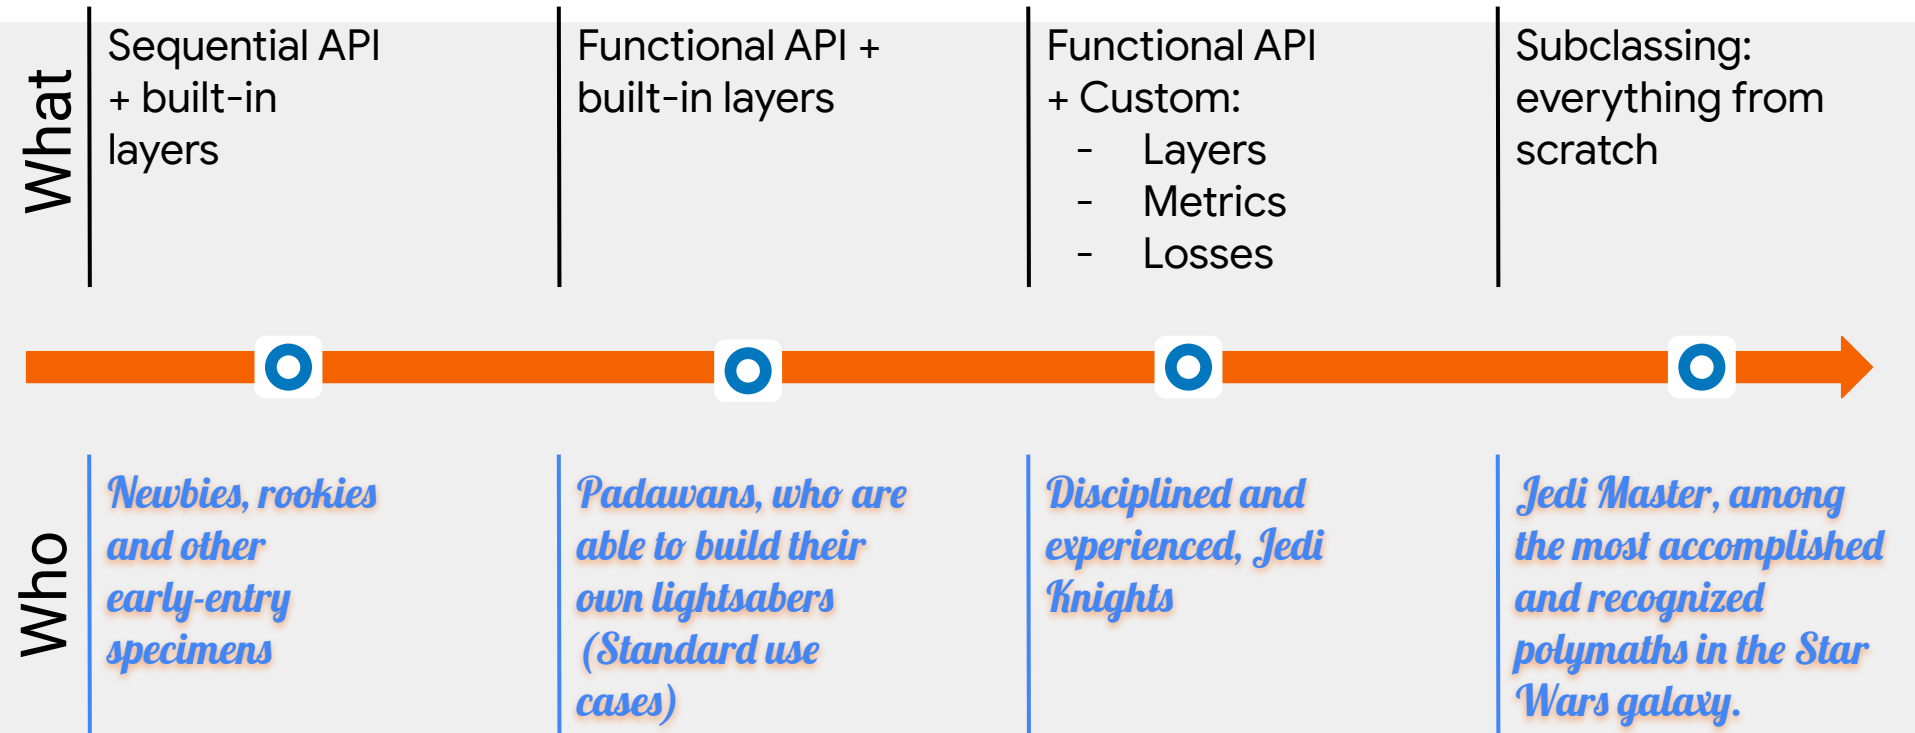

Content I (Course structure)

- Sequence, times, priority
- Alternative/advanced journeys for more experienced audience
 - Initial time frame was 4h

Content II (Course structure)

Content III (Course structure)

Format (Course structure)

- Google Classroom
- Slides
- Notebook

Design & License (Course structure)

- Design / coding guidelines(?)
- License: CC XXXX / Apache 2.0

Infrastructure options

- Mailing list. Request access here
- GitHub Organization / GitHub Pages
- Slack

April 7th, 2020

ML Content Working Group

Thank you

